When Fighting Factory Farms, There Is No Middle Ground

Published on Sep 22, 2016

Dr. John Ikerd offered the closing address at the Factory Farm Summit, a program of the Socially Responsible Agriculture Project. Dr. Ikerd insists that on matters of clean water, there is no middle ground. The Summit was in Green Bay WI.

What's Wrong with the Food System?

At a TEDx event, 11-year-old Birke Baehr presents his take on a major source of our food -- far-away and less-than-picturesque industrial farms. Keeping farms out of sight promotes a rosy, unreal picture of big-box agriculture, he argues, as he outlines the case to green and localize food production.

As the world begins to digest the implications of intellectual property for online censorship, another IP issue threatens an even more fundamental part of our daily lives: our food supply. Backed by legal precedent and armed with seemingly inexhaustible lobbying funds, a handful of multinationals are attempting to use patents on life itself to monopolize the biosphere.

Conspiracy to Drug America? - Is Big Pharma Making Us Mentally Ill?

Pill Popping America - Is Big Pharma Making Us Mentally Ill?

With ever growing numbers of Americans being diagnosed with mental illness and drug companies making massive profits for medicating the population for these supposed diseases and disorders, some important questions should be asked:

Are so many of us truly mentally ill? - If the answer is yes, what is causing this upsurge in disorders?
